If during this period the vehicle should be sold or exchanged for money or other goods, or an introduction should be made which results in the subsequent sale or exchange of the vehicle to any third party, Consignor agrees to make immediate payment to the Consignee of the sales commissions described in the paragraph above. the Consignee may retain possession of the vehicle or title until payment is made in addition to any other legal remedies which may be available.

3. INSURANCE

The vehicle will be insured at Consignor's expense from the time of receipt by the Consignee until it ceases to be in the Consignee's custody, in an amount equal to the greater of the reserve, if any and the fair market value of the vehicle.

6. PAYMENT

Consignor agrees and consents to the sale of the vehicle according to the terms and conditions outlined herein and in the Contract of Sale, a copy of which is available upon request. Consignor authorizes the Consignee to release the vehicle to the successful buyer and agrees to rely solely upon the buyer for payment. Consignor specifically releases the Consignee from any and all legal obligation for collection costs, attorney or legal fees, or any other expenses associated with the sale of the vehicle and the collection of payment. If, as a convenience to the Consignor, the Consignee should issue payment to the Consignor on behalf of the buyer, the payment can be revoked, cancelled, or withheld at any time at the Consignee's sole discretion until payment has been received from the buyer. All or a portion of the sale proceeds may be withheld by the Consignee to satisfy any debt or obligation owed by the Consignor to the Consignee with respect to this or any other agreement.

12. CANCELLATION OF SALE

The Consignee may, at its sole discretion, cancel or rescind the sale of the vehicle if it determines or has reason to believe that the offer for sale has or may subject the Consignee, the Consignor, or both to any liability including but not limited to liabilities due to representations made by the seller or due to insufficient title or authority. In the event of such cancellation, the Consignee shall have the right to refund or credit to the purchaser the full purchase price. In the event that the Consignor has received all or part of the proceeds, the Consignor agrees to repay such amounts. The Consignor also agrees to accept return of the vehicle as full and complete settlement of this consignment agreement.

If the Consignor offers to sell the vehicle for an amount less than the reserve price and the Consignee agrees to sell the vehicle for such amount, the normal commission rate for vehicles consigned with reserve shall apply.

16. If the Consignor sues the Consignee for any reason and does not prevail, the Consignor agrees to pay all the Consignee's legal fees and expenses associated with said suit.

17. Title may be held by the Consignee at its sole discretion until such time as payment in full has been received, including clearing of funds, if applicable and all Termination Statements have been received regarding any lien payoffs.

18. CANCELLATION

No Entry Fees will be refunded for cancellation within fourteen (14) days prior to the sale. No entry fees will be refunded if vehicle is in the catalogue. This agreement may be cancelled fifteen (15) days or more before the sale with a $50.00 administration fee payable.
